The Treaty recently concluded between tes and Donmark, is stated to be e have ever had with that pow-founded on principles of great paration into and from each country, in the vessels of each, of whitever may be law-roused so feach, of whitever may be law-fully imported or exported, not only from the respective countries, but from all for-tering countries, with unimportant excep-tions. This is the just and true basis on the which the countries are the countries of na-tions should be established.

We have seen the full length Portraits or We have seen the full length Portraits or Weshington, Jeffersten, Laftgrette, Frank-in and Ogletinope, which the Evecutive was authorised, by a resolution of the Legislature before the last, to have executed. We are not connoiseours in painting, but as far as we ran judge, the execution does received to the genina and skill of the artist, Mr. Patker. We regret that the portrait of Gen James Jackson was not included in the number of the distinguished characters when the legislature thought proper to honor—few men had rendered the stare services so important as his, both in a civil and military capacity.

The direction of the Legislature placed the fullshed in the Executive Chamber, and the others in the Security Chamber, and the others in the Senate and Repre-sentative Chambers, we consider as un-fortunate—They would appear to much more advantage exhibited in one room, where the proper portion of light could be admitted.

Grn. Oglethorpe, the founder of the Colony on which Georgia, during his life, became an dependent State, died the 30th of June, 1785, ed 102, said to be the oldest General in En-perin 1706 he held an Emiga's commission

We notice in a Virginia paper a fact that surprises us—The Cotton shipped from the town of Petershing, during the last year, amounted to 35,000 bales, and the quantity received within the same pe-riod is stated at upwards of 40,000—Until Vessells as a like with the same period is riod is stated at upwards of 30,000 – Until recently we believe little more of the ac-recently we believe little more of the ac-ticle was carried there than sufficed to supply the demand for home manufacture in parts of the State where more is made. This proves a rapid unrease of production in the southern section of Virginia and the adjacent parts of N. Carolina.

While those who have been all their lives which who who have been all their lives afficied with Stammering, are curred by Mrs. Leigh of New-York, a Dr. Loiseau of New-Orleans has discovered the art of curing Drunkenness, and has published certificates, given by the most inveterated drunkraft in accept the afficiency of the control of Armylards, to prove the efficiency of his re-medy. We hope Dr. L. will adopt the course pursued by Mrs. Leigh, and send in-tructed agents throughout the rountry to retard the hencefts of a discovery, so in-portant to the peace of lamilies and the
