Conriction for Murder-Five Indian, we are informed, were tred and convicted at the last Superior court of Thomas county, for the murder of Alfon Cary's family, noticed by us in December last. One of them however, died, and another made his escape previous to the time appointed for their execution. The other three were hung on the 29th ult. They force their fast with uncommon forticale. When one of them (the last one executed) was launched off, the rope by which is was asspended broke. He rose up and enquired whether they, (the officers of justice) were done with him. Upon to justice) were done with him. Upon re ceiving an answer in the negative, he said with great non-chalance, " Try it again then."

The New-York Courier in noticing the The New York Courier in noticing the frands which sometimes occur in the paci-ing of Cotton, remarks that, "the venders of wooden nutmegs who are so utunerially lashed by our Southern friends, are patters of honesty, when compared with the Pac-ters of Cutton." It is grossly ought that to make the knavery of a few individual. to make the knavery of a tew individual the foundation of an unrestricted surces, upon the whole class of Couon planier. Without entertaining any invidious or il-natured feeding towards our Norther brethren, we may venture to assert, that in point of integrity, as well as all other versal attributes, which dirugify the clares. moral attributes which dignify the clame ter of man, the Southern Cotton-plant would have nothing to fear from a co would have nothing to lear from a co-parison with the Northern merchaut, in nufacturer or farmer.
