

Court of Ordinary, Appling Co. Nov 6th 1876

Whereas this Term of the Court of Ordinary of Appling County Georgia appointed by the Court of Ordinary of the Person and Property of Henry B. Bell a minor of this County for over fourteen years old since his birth, do meet with my office and given security as the law requires and taken the usual oath of office Ours, and on the hand and official signature this 6th Nov 1876

James T. Tilton
Clerk

Georgia

Appling Co. To the Court of Ordinary of said County the Petition of Charles Taylor Administrator on the Estate of said late of said County, Minn. Respectfully Petition your Honor to pass and order allowing your Petitioner to sell all the real Estate belonging to said estate of or distributed to and for. Petitioner will ever pay the cost 6th Nov 1876

Charles Taylor Admin
Court of Ordinary of Appling Co
Nov 6th 1876

Application of Charles Taylor Admin of said Estate for said being was and considered It is ordered that Citation do issue calling upon all Concerned to file their objections within the time prescribed by law the said Citation having been published for four weeks in the Eastern Times and no objection filed It is ordered and adjudged by the Court that said Charles Taylor Administrator on his own behalf do sell the said land in said County, Georgia by giving the legal notice as the law requires

James T. Tilton
Clerk

Court of Ordinary, Appling Co. Nov 6th 1876

It appearing to this Court upon the application of said Charles Taylor Administrator of said late of said County that it will be for the benefit and advantage of the heirs and Creditors of said Decedent that the land and said land 149th Section 1 of said land the entire real estate except the 149th Section of said land be sold. It is ordered that notice of application for said land be given according to law. It is ordered that said Administrator be authorized to sell said land or part of land after giving the notice of sale now by the State in which land made and provided herein under my hand and seal of office

James T. Tilton
Clerk