

Ordnance and Court
August, Term 1873

J. J. McCallum & Manning have to show before in this office an appraisement and valuation of the property of the Strong Steam Flouring Mills and the same Manning have submitted to a rigorous by law, in the Eastern in terms of the property of the property pulling and the through and to Carm & Manning & from property and take them away. That no Carm & Manning from claiming same property by their appearance. That same same will be paid the expenses of the property.

J. J. McCallum & Manning have to show before in this office an
appraisement and valuation
of the property of the property
pulling and the through and to
Carm & Manning & from property
and take them away. That no Carm & Manning from
claiming same property
by their appearance. That same
same will be paid the expenses
of the property.

Ordnance and Court
August 31st 1873

James McCallum & Manning have to show before in this office an
appraisement and valuation
of the property of the property
pulling and the through and to
Carm & Manning & from property
and take them away. That no Carm & Manning from
claiming same property
by their appearance. That same
same will be paid the expenses of the property.