

A Record of the will of Mary Rodman I will to Hugh Campbell in the first place I leave him my Bed and furniture in the next place I leave him my Trunk in the next place two bundle Sticks and one large pointer Dish one pair of Spectacles one Cassimer Shawl to his Daughter Mary Jane also one Shert one blue Shawl. To Hugh 1 pitcher 1 Mug 1 Small Bowl 7 plates 1 glass Tumbler 1 wine glass 1 purple Salt Cellar 1 Set cups & Saucers 1 Set knives and forks 1 Set Spoons 1 Set tea Spoons 1 Potrack and Tongs 1 Looking glass 1 Small oven and tin 1 pair pot hooks 1 white Bowl & one umbrella 1 School Bible.

I will the above named articles to Hugh Campbell provided he shall apply for them in the Space of Six Months after my death if he does not I will him ten dollars.

I will to James Campbell in the first place fifteen dollars and fifty cents borrowed money two dollars sent by James Mason at another time four dollars borrowed one more fifty dollars one pot and frying pan one axe one iron lodge one pair Tongs. I further will a note given by Jas. Campbell to me to Robert Campbell his Son also one Small Pot. I will that they shall be satisfied with their portion.

I will to John P. Atchison all the remaining articles with the exception of her wearing clothes and spinning wheel which is to go to Thomas Wright besides one Tub 1 Black Silk Shawl. I do hereby appoint John P. Atchison and Andrew McDonald Executors in this my will this the fifteenth day of January 1854

Signer Sealed and acknowledged in presence of Cooper L. Bennett

Mary ^{her} Rodman mark

Georgia Cass County. Before us S. D. Burnett & Samuel L. Atchison Justices of the Superior Court for said County personally appeared Cooper L. Bennett who upon being duly sworn depone and saith an oath that he saw Mary Rodman make and sign the within instrument and that he himself signed it as Subscribing Witness

Witness to & Subscribers before us this 17th December 1854.

S. D. Burnett J. S. C.
S. L. Atchison J. S. C.

Cooper L. Bennett