Thousand Dollars, in Land.
- Eighthly I desire that all my household and kitchen furniture be equally divided between my sons Jonathan King John Henry King, and William Martin King.
- Ninthly I desire that all my perishable property, such as horses mules, cattle, and farming utensils, such as thrasher mower, hay rake, wagon, shall be sold by my Executors as soon after my demise as convenient and the proceeds of said sale be applied to making all my Children equal in proportion to what they have already received, and all of my land to be disposed of as my Children may think best. and all my property not specifically disposed of in this instrument shall be sold and the proceeds divided equally among my Children
- Tenthly I desire that the remainder or balance that will be due my son Jonathan King shall be left in trust in the hands of my executors, and said money shall be placed to the benefit of the said Jonathan King such as building him a house to live in, and other improvements suitable for his comfort, or such things as he may actually need, I desire his lands which I have made him deeds to shall not be subject to any debts or contracts that he may make, nor the proceeds thereof, and all of the property that I have given him or he may receive from my estate, hereafter shall go to the legal heirs of the said Jonathan King
