

Georgia, Berrien County.

We, William H. Heath and Willie Bell Heath, of said State and County, being of sound and disposing mind, and memory, do make, and publish and declare our last Will and Testament, as follows:

Item 1. We each desire our Body buried in a manner in keeping with our position in life, in such Cemetery as may be selected by the survivor of the makers of this Will.

Item 2. Upon the death of either of us, the survivor is hereby bequeathed all of the Property, both real and personal, including Cash, Choses in action, and all other assets of every kind and Character whatsoever of the deceased.

Item 3. We each hereby appoint the Survivor as Executor of this our last Will and Testament, Empowering him, or her, to sell any and all property, at private, or public sale, without an order of any Court, to borrow money, securing same with any of our property, as his, or her, judgment may dictate, and, we likewise, empower him, or her, to sell any or all of said Estate for the purpose any indebtedness left by either at death and to execute title ~~and~~ deed thereto, either at public or private sale. We each release said Executor from making any bond or returns to any Court whatsoever.

William H. Heath
Willie Bell Heath

Published, declared and executed by William H. Heath and Willie Bell Heath as their joint and mutual last Will and Testament, on the 23rd Day of February, 1934. both Testators signing in our presence, and we signing in their presence and in the presence of each other.

Thos Arora
Elsie H. Griner
Gladys B. Knight