Georgia } In the Honorable the Superior Court sitting for ordinary Bills Camp } purposes

In the matter of the pretended will of Readick Reelana deceased late of Bills Camp, pronounced by James Simcoe and Milena his wife who is the daughter and here at Law of said Readick Reelana in Court by Messrs Marsh their attorney and Conals the probating of said pretended will upon the following grounds

- 1st For that the said Readick was not at the time of making said will of a sound and disposing mind and memory
- 2nd For that said Readick when he made said will was labouring under mental delusion as to the identity of Milena his only child simply because she named the name of her child and one whom she loved instead of marrying to man whom she did not and cannot love. And that while under the influence of his vice and feelings towards his only child the said pretended will was made
- 3rd For that said pretended will is contrary to every principle of Moral Justice Equity and Common Sense
- 4th For that said Readick without any good cause at the time of making said Will was labouring under a species of alienation of mind towards his said daughter and only child that rendered him incapable of making a rational just and equitable disposition of his property
- 5th And for that at the time of making said pretended will the said Readick was labouring under a mental derangement of mind towards the said Milena his only child. And was not as towards his said daughter of a sound and disposing mind
- 6th That the said Readick was not of a sound and disposing mind at the time of making said pretended will, nor indeed for a great many years before towards his said child Milena that the said Readick from some cause unknown to her, was labouring under some delusion towards her & her mother and said delusion actually abandoned them, when the said

Melena was an infant and did not return to acknowledge his daughter until about two three years ago when he returned and manifested a father's affection and actually persuaded his said daughter to leave her home and accompany him to his place which she did that soon after he again manifested a disordered state of mind. Towards her and professed that she should marry a man who she did not and could not love then she demonstrated with him he became wild and furious and carried her to Augusta to accomplish his purpose to arrive his unnatural purpose. The Maria the man whom she did love then all his former delusion was aroused and he became towards her insane and so remained and was when he made his and published said pretended will.
