I Adam Robinson being informed, in years and of feeble health, do make this my last Will and Testament

First. I give and bequeath to my beloved wife Rebecca, my boy Osborne during the term of her natural life, and at her death, the little thereof to rest in my Executors hereinafter appointed, who are to dispose of him by sale, and divide the proceeds ratably between my children, as my other property is hereinafter disposed. My will and desire further is, that she be furnished out of my estate, such provisions for her subsistence as she may require; a comfortable house to live in, and that she select from my house-hold furniture, to furnish her house, such portion as she may desire. After the payment of my just debts, my will and desire is, that my estate be distributed equally among my children in the following manner: One portion to the children of my deceased daughter Harriette, namely Martha, Nancy, Adam, Chappell, William, and Henry: That part of one fifth of my estate going to my daughter Harriette's children, which will fall to the share of my grand-daughter Martha; I desire her to hold to her sole & separate use, free from the control, or ownership of her husband. One portion to my son John, one portion to my daughter Nancy and her husband Amos Coffey, one portion to my son William, and one portion to my son Adam: And that part of my estate, apporportioned to my wife Rebecca, during her life and in lieu of Dower, to be distributed in the same way and proportion, with the rest of my estate, at her death.

I further will and desire, that my estate real and personal after taking out what is here by apporportioned to my wife Rebecca be sold in order that the proceeds may be divided, and distributed as above provided, and that the time and manner of sale be discretionary with my executors, without application to the Court of Ordinary for an order to sell to sell the same, or advertisement in the Ordinary way, when application for an order is made.

And I hereby appoint my son William, and my son Adam my Executors, to execute and carry out, this my last Will and Testament: I further desire, that my servant Jeff, be taken care of during the remainder of her life, by my executors: She having been a faithful servant; and that she should not be sold with the rest of my property.
