closed, Deponent called to see Mr Collins in relation to the matter, & he agreed to pay interest on the same until paid, said Collins remarking to Deponent that the interest was what Alexander wanted & that he Collins would pay interest. Deponent then requested Mr Collins to give him a showing to that effect in writings which he agreed to do, but there being no writing material, conveniently it was not done, but he promised to do it some other time - nothing more was done and the matter was neglected, and the showing in writing that was promised was never received. - Subscribed and sworn to before me this 7th March 1855. - }
