Peter Stubbs of the State and County aforesaid being weak in body, but of sound disposing mind and memory, do hereby make and ordain the following as my last Will and testament, hereby revoking all former Wills by me heretofore made. I commend my soul to God, humbly hoping in His mercy, through the merits of our Lord Jesus Christ, and my body to be decently buried, leaving my circumstances.

I will and desire that all my just debts be paid, as soon after my decease as circumstances will permit.

I further will and desire, that after the payment of my debts, all the property real and personal, of which I may die possessed, should be kept together in the possession and control of my beloved wife, Helen Stubbs, and under the control and supervision of her and of my executors to be hereafter named, until my youngest child arrives at the age of twenty one years, or until the marriage of my said wife, when either of these events shall happen, I wish my property to be equally divided between my said wife, and all my children, then in life share and share alike, having reference in said division to any property I may have heretofore given to any one of my said children; The object and intention in bequeathing my property together, is that my younger children may be raised and educated suitably; It is further my desire, that my Executors named should not be required to make annual returns, as I have the fullest confidence in their fidelity, that they will do ample justice in the premises, without incurring that trouble.

Lastly I hereby nominate constitute and appoint my beloved son John Stubbs and my Brother Francis Stubbs of the County of Cobb, and S P Stubbs of the County of Baldwin Executors to this my last Will and testament.
