

Last Will and Testament William Daniel
Georgia
Bibb County

I William Daniel of the State and County aforesaid, do make, publish and declare this to be my last will and Testament.

It is my will and desire that all my property, both real and personal be sold, and after the payment of my debts that the balance be divided equally between my wife Ellen and my son William Lafayette. And it is my will and desire that if my son depart this life having neither wife, child or children that the whole of my estate shall go to and vest in my wife.

And in the event of the death of both my wife and son being unmarried and without child or children it is my will that my estate then descend and half to such of my wife's relatives and the other half to such of my relations as would inherit under the laws of this State.

I hereby nominate and appoint Charles Butcher guardian of the person and property of my son William Lafayette, and the sole Executor of this my last will and Testament.

Signed, Sealed, Published and delivered in our presence, and we in the presence of each other
