

Administrators' Sale.

WILL BE SOLD on the first Tuesday in March next, at the courthouse in the town of Waynesborough, Burke county, between the usual sale hours, the real estate which belonged to Drewry Womble, late of said county dec. In this settlement is about six hundred acres of excellent oak and hickory land, for the raising of Cotton, Corn and all other produce common for the country—a good two story house, and excellent well of water (and that very convenient to the house)—there is both a peach and apple orchard. This place lies about two miles from Walker's Bridge, on the north side of Brier creek, twelve miles from Waynesborough, and twenty from Augusta. It is worth any gentleman's attention, who wishes to follow raising the above named articles.
