

Georgia } On the Name of God Amen.

Be it known that I, Oliver H. P. Newton being of sound mind, and in good health as usual for me, but knowing that it is appointed unto men to die, think it due to myself and family that I should make a disposition of the things entrusted to me by a kind providence, do therefore make this my last will and Testament - hereby revoking all others made by me.

Item 1st I desire and direct that my body may be buried in a decent and Christian like manner, suitable to my circumstances and condition in life, my soul I trust, shall return to rest with God who gave it, as I hope for eternal life, through the merits and atonement of our blessed Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

Item 2nd I desire and direct, that all my just debts be paid without delay, by my executors, hereinafter appointed, the money to be raised from the proceeds of the crop, and sale of the land, on which I now live, and all the stock I may own at the time of my death, together with all the plantation tools, said sale to be made either publicly or privately, as shall seem proper at the time, by my executors.

Item 3rd I give and bequeath to my beloved wife Susan P. Newton, a negro woman by the name of Mary, aged about twenty five years, and her child Austen, one and a half years old, and a negro boy, Alfred, about nineteen years old, a negro boy Edmund, about nineteen years old, a negro boy Augustus, about four years old, a negro girl Elizabeth, about thirteen years old, - all of the above to be for her sole and separate use, (with the exception of the provision below) during her widowhood. - and, in the event of her marriage, it is my will, that the whole of my estate be equally divided between my wife Susan P. Newton and my son Lucian Newton - my wife Susan P. Newton shall enjoy one half of the above property during her natural life: not subject, in any way, to any debts or liabilities of any future husband she may have - and at her death, the same to go, or revert, to my son Lucian Newton, and I also desire and direct that my executors hereinafter appointed, shall pay over to the Guardian of my son Lucian Newton, from the proceeds of the above property during my wife's widowhood, Fifty dollars annually, for the purpose of paying for tuition, books &c.

Item 4th I give and bequeath to my son Lucian Newton, my silver watch and pocket Bible.

Item 5th In case my son Lucian Hewton, should die during minority, then the property given him in the third Item, also the reversing of the property at the death of my wife, to be equally divided between my brothers and sisters who may be living at the time of his death, share and share alike.

Item 6th And to avoid all misconstruction, I will further say: In case my son Lucian shall die before he comes of age, and my wife Susan P. Hewton, shall afterwards marry, at the time of her marriage, a division of the property is to take place, and the one half that was to go to my son is to go immediately to my brothers and sisters, and be equally divided, among such as may be living, at the time of his death, share and share alike.

Item 7th I hereby appoint James M. Hewton, and Charles F. Hewton, my Executors, to carry into effect this my last will and Testament - giving them discretionary powers in all matters that will not violate the spirit of this Testament.
