Georgia, Carroll County, This indenture made and entered into, this 10th day of December 1886, between R. L. Garner of the town of Whitesburg and County aforesaid, of the first part, and W. C. Braman, of the County aforesaid, of the other part, witnesseth, that whereas, the said Garner, a merchant doing a general merchandise business in said town of Whitesburg, in the County aforesaid, has become largely indebted, to wit: in the sum of $6628²², or other large sum, to various persons and firms, whose names or as a part of this deed, with the amounts due each as near as can be ascertained, marked "Exhibit A", and whereas, a large portion of the debt owing by said Garner to the persons or firms mentioned in "Exhibit A" are now due and past due, and the balance will soon be due, and whereas it is impracticable for the said Garner to convert the property he now owns into such as to pay off his said indebtedness already due and past due, and that which shortly to be due, and whereas the creditors, or many of them mentioned in said "Exhibit A", of the said Garner, are urging him to a speedy settlement of their respective claims, and whereas, if suit is brought on said matured indebtedness, and the property belonging to said Garner should be brought to sale, now the same would be to a considerable extent sacrificed, and thus a part only of his debts would be paid, and others receive nothing; and whereas, the said Garner desires to pay all his creditors, and being satisfied that his property, if judiciously managed, is sufficient to discharge every dollar he owes and being desirous of paying his indebtedness and saving his property from being needlessly sacrificed, and having it managed to the interest of all his creditors, and whereas the only way to do this is for him to make assignment of all his property to some honest and prudent person, therefore, for and in consideration of the premises and the sum of five dollars in hand paid, at and before the signing, sealing and delivery of these presents, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, the said Garner hereby sells, conveys, and delivers to the said Braman as trustee, all the property mentioned, described and valued in the inventory and schedule hereto attached and made a part of this deed of assignment, marked "Exhibit B", consisting of a stock of goods and storehouse fixtures, such as groceries, dry goods, crockery, cutlery, hardware, shoe cases, soap, and in the storehouse occupied by him in said town of Whitesburg as appears from said "Exhibit B", and valued at that cost at $10,000, said stock and fixtures
