

paper as his last will and testament that we subscribed the same as witnesses thereto at the special instance and request of the said James Baskin and in his presence as did also, Wm. M. Allen. That the said James Baskin signed the same freely and voluntarily, and was, at the time of such signing, of sound mind and disposing mind and memory.

Sworn to & subscribed before me, } M. J. Baskin This March 12th, 1888. } J. W. Taylor S. J. Brown, Ordinary.

Carroll Court of Ordinary, April Term 1888.
Upon the affidavit of M. J. Baskin and J. W.
Taylor, two of the subscribing witnesses to the within Will of James Baskin, deceased, it is ordered by the Court that said will be admitted to record as satisfactorily proven in common form, and it is further ordered that letters testamentary issue to C. W. Baskin and J. B. Baskin, the executors named in said will, upon their taking and subscribing the oath required by law.

This 2nd day of April, 1888.
S. J. Brown
Ordinary.

Last will and Testament of Geo. W. Chance, decd., State of Georgia, } I, George W. Chance of said State Carroll County. } and County being of sound and disposing mind and memory do make this my last will and testament.

Item first, I give, bequeath and devise to my wife Nancy Chance the following property, to-wit: One feather bed, bedstead and bed clothing, that belongs to a bed also one small red chest and one small trunk also one hundred dollars in cash to be left with James W. Chance my son, and I desire that my said son, James W. Chance pay to my wife Nancy Chance ten dollars each year until said hundred dollars is paid out or during her life, I desire that if my said wife, Nancy Chance does not live until all the hundred dollars is paid out, that the remainder of said one hundred go to my son James W. Chance.

over

Item the second, I will and desire that all my property not heretofore given of every description, including house hold and kitchen furniture, money, notes and accounts and all of my said property of every description go to my Son, James W. Chance.

This March the 2, 1888.

G. W. Chance

Signed declared and published by George W. Chance, as his last will and testament in the presence of us the subscribers, who subscribe our names hereto in the presence of said testator at his instance and request and of each other, he signing in our presence and we signing in his presence.

H. J. Drewry

E. H. McPherson

J. B. Gill

Georgia-Carroll County.

I, J. W. Chance, do solemnly swear that this writing contains the true last will of the within named George W. Chance, deceased, so far as I know or believe, and that I will well and truly execute the same in accordance with the laws of this State. So help me God.

J. W. Chance
Sworn to and subscribed before me, this 2nd day of July, 1888.

S. J. Brown,
Ordinary.