

Last Will of Jessie Graham, deceased.

Georgian, Carroll County.

I, Jessie Graham, of Said State and County, being of Sound and disposing mind and memory do make this my last will and testament.

Item 1st - I give, bequeath and devise to my beloved mother Mary C. Graham the house and lot in Carrollton Said County on which she now lives, it being the place deeded by my said mother to me in 1886 - in which deed the the sum of Two hundred & fifty dollars was reserved out of the proceeds of said house and lot to my brother Charles J. Graham, it being my intention herein to bequeath to my said mother all of my interest right and title to said house and lot.

Item 2nd - I hereby constitute and appoint Josie R. Griffin Executor of this my last will and testament - This Dec. the 4th, 1887.

Jessie Graham.
Signed, declared and published by Jessie Graham as her last will and testament in the presence of us the Subscribers who subscribe our names hereto in the presence of said testatrix at her instance and request and of each other, she signing in our presence and we signing in her presence the day and year above written.

B. L. Embury
J. T. White
D. G. Wilson

Georgian, Carroll County.

I, J. T. White, do swear that I, as well as D. G. Wilson and Dr B. L. Embury saw the within named Jessie Graham, sign and publish the within paper as her last will and testament. That I subscribed the same as a witness thereto, at the special instance and request of the said Jessie Graham and in her presence, as did also D. G. Wilson and Dr B. L. Embury; that the said Jessie Graham signed the same freely and voluntarily, and was, at the time of such signing, of sound and disposing mind and memory.

J. T. White
D. G. Wilson
B. L. Embury

Carroll Court of Ordinary,

February Term, 1888.

Upon the foregoing Affidavit of S. J. White, one of the subscribing witnesses to the within will of Jesse Graham, deceased, it is ordered by the Court that said will be admitted to record as satisfactorily proven in Common form, and it is further ordered that Letters Testamentary issue to Jesse R. Griffin, the executor named in said will, upon his taking and subscribing the oath required by law.

This 6th day of February, 1888
S. J. Brooker, Ordinary.

Last Will of William R. Boone, deceased.

In the name of God Amen. I William R. Boone of the County of Carroll in the State of Georgia being weak in body but of sound mind and memory blessed be God do make and ordain this my last will and Testament in the words following that is to say my soul I resign to God who gave it and my body to the earth to be buried in a plain and decent manner at the discretion of my executors.

As to what worldly substance we are blessed with I gave and bequeath it all after paying all my just debts to my beloved wife Ferebe Boone all my lands negroes ready money notes and all my property of every kind to have for her use during her natural life provided she remains a widow and if she should marry she will have from the time of her marriage her lawful dowry or third of my land and child's part of my other property the executors at the same time taking charge of the estate if she remains single she will have the management of it herself and it is my wish at her death or marriage that all the property that is then forthcoming if at her death or if at her marriage all but her lower be sold by my executors and an equal