

Last Will and Testament of J. H. Hume of said State and County of Georgia

I, J. H. Hume of said State and County of Georgia and disposing mind and memory do hereby make my last will and testament.
That I give, bequeath and devise to my son J. H. Hume my half interest of my estate held in fee and personal property from and to the charge or limitation of nature to his and proper heirs and assigns.

And I do give, bequeath and devise to E. P. Hume my half interest in all my property real and personal from and to the charge and constituted executor to his said papers and effects.

Now Know all further your bequest and devise to my daughter H. B. B. the remaining one-fourth interest in my estate which may be owned and possessed by me at my death and for years my charge or liabilities which to his said father in bequest and devise.

And I hereby constitute and appoint my daughter H. B.
B. executor of this my last will and testament.
This 25th day of July 1880.

J. V. Harris

Witness declared and published by J. V. Harris as his last will and testament in the presence of us the Subscribers and we were sworn in the presence of said testator at his request and each of us after the signing in his presence and on signing in his presence the Data above written.

J. H. Bishop
E. J. Alford
J. H. Jones Jr.