and state aforesaid on this the nineteenth day of July 1874 saw and signed and in my presence and in the presence of the said person and property which I possess at my death

1st I wish to be buried in a plain and decent manner

2nd I wish and want all just debts I may owe paid I do not owe but little

3 I want and wish all my property both real and personal to remain on the farm as it is kept together and managed for the benefit and support of my wife and two youngest daughters. Should the daughters marry or should my wife marry then there may be a division of what property remains. An equal division between my wife and my four children except I want my two youngest daughters to have each of them two hundred dollars a piece before a division. Having given off to my two other children some property at their marriage.

4th I appoint my wife executrix of this my will to control and manage together with the advise of Robert F. Smith as he lives close by

In the name of God Amen I Adolphus S. Howler being of sound and disposing mind and memory do hereby make publish and declare this instrument as my last will and testament.

It is my desire to be buried decently and according to the forms of the Christian religion which I profess and which I trust will be sufficient for me in the hour of death.

It is my will and I hereby direct that all my just debts be paid as speedily as possible
