Last Will and Testament of J. C. Wright.
I, J. C. Wright of said State and County, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, do make this my last will and Testament, hereby revoking all wills heretofore made by me.

I ^{Item, one.} wish my executors as soon as practicable
after my death to pay all my just and honest debts, and should the payment of my debts require the sale of property, they are hereby authorized to sell such of my personal property as in their opinion can be most advantageously sold and they may sell either at public or private sale as they may elect.

^{Item, Two.}

I give and bequeath to my youngest son James C. Wright, Jr. my large amputating case and my gold watch; provided nevertheless that should he die before arriving at his majority, same shall revert to my estate.

^{Item, Three.}

It is my will and desire that all property both real and personal of which I may be seized, except the above bequeathed

will's heretofore made by me.

Item, one.
I wish my executors as soon as practicable after my death to pay all my just and honest debts, and should the payment of my debts require the sale of property, they are hereby authorized to sell such of my personal property as in their opinion can be most advantageously sold and they may sell either at public or private sale as they may elect.

Item, Two.

I give and bequeath to my youngest son James C. Wright, Jr. my large amputating case and my gold watch; provided notwithstanding that should he die before arriving at his majority, same shall revert to my estate.

Item, Three.

It is my will and desire that all property both real and personal of which I may be seized, except the above bequeathed, remain in the hands of my executors hereinafter named for the support and maintenance of my family during the lifetime or widowhood of my wife, and the minority of my children, or until such time as said children shall marry. All benefits from my estate to cease upon the marriage of my widow or daughters and upon the arrival at the age of twenty one years of my boys.

Item, Four.

It is my ^{will} that immediately upon the death or marriage of my wife and the marriage of my daughters, and the majority of my youngest son, that all of my property both real and personal be sold by my executor and equally divided between my wife and all my children, share and share alike, heirs of deceased children if any standing in their room and stead.

Item, Five.

It is my desire that my executors hereinafter named have full and complete control of all my property after my death, and that none of my wife's relatives be allowed a home with her, or to have anything in any way to do with the management of my estate.

Item, Six

I do hereby appoint my friends and neighbors (and my wife Annie while she remains unmarried) and J. W. Vickery executors of this my will. (For economy these executors will act without going into appointment by the Court, save expense of administering upon my estate).

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand this 14th day of October 1904 and all my children, share and share alike, heirs of deceased children if any standing in their room and stead.

I am, Sir,

It is my desire that my executors hereinafter named have full and complete control of all my property after my death, and that none of my wife's relatives be allowed a home with her, or to have anything in any way to do with the management of my estate.

I am, Sir

I do hereby appoint my friends and neighbors (and my wife Annie while she remains unmarried) and J. W. Vickery executors of this my will. (For economy these executors will act without going into appointment by the Court, save expense of administering upon my estate).

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand this 14th day of October 1904
