GEORGE BLISS, pro Comptroller.

To be Sold, Greenwich,

That well known valuable Plantation called Opposite Augusta, containing six hundred and forty acres of land, one hundred acres of which, are prime river low grounds, where a ferry is established. On the premises are two ware-houses for the inspection of tobacco, that will contain one thousand hogheads, with a framed dwelling house and store adjoining to them; and at a small distance, on the high land, another framed dwelling house, on a brick foundation, and a store completely shelled, with counters, &c. and a cellar under them that is perfectly dry, together with every convenient out building; the whole in good repair, and built of the best materials, and if not sold by the first of September next, will be rented.

For particulars, apply to General Andrew Pickens, at Long-Cane, Messrs. Gervais & Owen, Charleston, or on the premises, to MELINES C. LEAVENWORTH.
