

AUGUSTA CHRONICLE.

VOL. XXVIII.]

Freedom of the Press and Trial by Jury, shall remain inviolate.

[NO. 1317.]

PRINTED BY ADAMS & DUYCKINCK, BROAD-STREET.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 26, 1813.

Executor's Sale.

On the first Monday in January next,

PURSUANT to an order from the honorable, the court of ordinary, of the county of Chatham, will be sold at the court-house, in the City of Savannah,

Part of the personal estate of JOSEPH BRYAN, esq. deceased, late of Wilmington Island; consisting of upwards of one hundred country-born Negroes, two Boats and a Flat; the negroes will be sold in families, composed of fieldhands and mechanics. All legal demands against the said estate, will be received as cash, according to their priority by law.

John Scriven, ex'or.

 The editors of the Georgia Argus, of Milledgeville; and of the Chronicle, at Augusta, will please insert this notice until the day of sale, and forward their accounts to the office of the Republican.

Oct. 29.

tds,