RUN away from the Subscriber, early in the last spring, as he repeatedly had done before, a Negro fellow named JEMMY, about five feet six or seven inches high, will at times change his own as he will his master's name, speaks bad English, and might be taken for an almost new negro, but is very plausible and artful, has his country (Ebo) marks on his face thus III, or thus III, and is well known about Spirit Creek, and is well known about Spirit Creek, having been twice taken at the plantation of Mr. William Bostick, and was very lately taken up by Capt. McGee. Likewise run away from the Subscriber, in the month of July 1785, and supposed to be somewhere in the back country, a new negro of the same nation, known by the name of JOE, about twenty-two years of age, very black and short, not much above five feet high, well made, and of a pleasant countenance, speaks little or no English, but upon being questioned of his present or late owner, (Mr. Francis Courvoisier) or his comrade Hector, will in all probability be easily discovered; his name may be now changed. Whoever will deliver the said negroes in Savannah, or to the Hon. Col. Fithbourn in Augusta, shall receive a Reward of EIGHT DOLLARS for each, and the sum of FIVE POUNDS will be given on information and conviction of their or each of their being harboured.

The subscriber will dispose of Jemmy or Joe. Terms to be known by application to Col. Fithbourn, or to JAMES JACKSON.
