

Georgia. I Before the Court the case of making full entry of Chatham in the State of Georgia personally appeared George Lane one of the subscribing witnesses to the foregoing last will and testament of Jonathan Thwaites late of the City of Savannah deceased who being duly sworn depose that he was present and did see the said testator sign and publish and declare the same together with the said last will and testament and that he was of sound mind at the time to the best of this deponent's belief and that James Hofer and Joseph DeLocher together with this deponent subscribed their names as witnesses at the request and in the presence of the testator and of each other made in open court } Geo. Lane 22 July 1803. J

Ed White Clerk

Georgia. I Frederick Shick of the City of Savannah being a freeman wake in body but of sound mind memory and understanding and considering the uncertainty of this transitory life do make this my last will and testament in manner and form following First I give and bequeath my soul to God its maker hoping for a resurrection Next I give and bequeath unto my wife Elizabeth Shick formerly known by the name Elizabeth DeLocher and my brother Peter Shick all the landed property of which I may die possessed I give and bequeath unto Solomon Shick now known and called by the name of Thomas Shick my son my wife Elizabeth and Amelia It is my express will and desire that the house wherein I now live together with the lot of ground wherein it stands shall at the death of my wife Elizabeth Shick go to and be for the sole use and behoof of my brother Peter Shick to him and his heirs forever free and clear of all or any let hindrance interruption or denial of any person or persons whatsoever and all and singular every other property whether real or personal of which I may die possessed I hereby give and bequeath unto my wife Elizabeth Shick and my brother Peter Shick to be by them Equally

