Having so little property to leave in this world I consider it inexpedient to make any formal Will. Whichever therefore it may please God to take me from this life. It is my earnest request to my dear children in last final Relation, that they will see what little I do leave in power of in the following manner, nothing doubting but they will readily comply with my last request. May God with his merciful spirit I leave a small amount for my wife.

They have taken the family Bible and my remaining things and cloving some of his dear mother's hair.

To my Daughter Katie my plain Gold ring which was her Mother's Wedding Ring and which the same individual owner of her hair and other mementoes sacred to her memory.

To my son James my Thesaurus, three Medical dictionaries and Johnson's Dictionary and two Volumes of Blair's Rhetoric.
