

22

Georgia, I do make and declare this day of January, A.D. 1853, privately at my residence in the city of Atlanta, in the county of Fulton, State of Georgia, before two witnesses, who are now affidavit, that of the city of Atlanta, Georgia, and that I am duly executed this day of January, A.D. 1853, and that said witness signs, seals, publishes and certifies the same to be and contains his last will and testament and that I am very weak minded at the time to the best of his knowledge, belief and information, and that he did not know what he was doing when he made this instrument, this instrument being made under the pressure of his said wife and her friends.

16 April 1853.

En Robt. W. Collier,

To — O

Joseph Melboher.

In the name of God, amen.

I, Joseph Melboher, of Atlanta, in the state of Georgia, do hereby make and publish my last will and testament, publishing this my last will and testament, first, by myself, and secondly, by my wife, my body may be buried in a convenient place, and as well as possible, as possible. Do my wife and her friends, who will be justly and lawfully used by me, at the time of my death, may be quiet, else my will is, and it shall be interpreted and construed according to the law of Georgia, and the laws of the United States.
I do hereby direct and command that my wife shall have full power to sell all my real estate, and to pay all my debts, and to keep open the dwelling house and Remington hotel, I now occupy, with the furniture which shall be therein, at the time of my death, that my wife and son shall support and supply the sons and daughters of the spouse of my wife, and that my wife shall enjoy the same spontaneous, her supported them & enjoy all the privileges which she now enjoys, so long as she shall live and if by force or other means my wife should then, should be compelled or induced to leave the country, then and in that case, it is my will that another suitable dwelling house shall be provided & taken at the expense of my other funds before me you do witness, and then my wife and her children as aforesaid equally ministered unto, and I have no money above the sum of one hundred pounds before me to manage her life...

And it is further intent and my will my James Mifflin, my own long past, and my mother Mary and Eva shall have managing of my money during her life. Also I give and devise to my Nephew John Oliver, son of Christopher & Margaret Oliver, five hundred Pounds money at four shillings and eight Pence each dollar, to be paid to the said John Oliver at the expiration of twelve months after my death. Also I give and devise unto my daughter Praga Oliver, one of the issue Christopher & Margaret, the sum of five hundred pounds money, to be paid to the said Praga Oliver at the expiration of twelve months, to begin to the said Praga Oliver at the expiration of twelve months after my death. Also I give and devise unto my niece Elizabeth daughter of the issue Christopher and Margaret Oliver, the sum of five hundred pounds like money, take paid to her for her own separate use, understanding that half price of her board & provided, and my will is that my executors herein afforementioned shall pay to my said niece Elizabeth yearly and every year, the sum aforesaid from the day of my death, until she shall have obtained her majority of twenty eight years, upon the sum of five hundred pounds money also I give and devise unto my niece Jane Oliver, Daughter of the issue Christopher and Margaret, the sum of five hundred pounds money to be paid to her for her own separate use, upon her being brought into full body provided and my will is, that my executors herein afforementioned shall pay to my said niece Jane, yearly and every year to be computed from the day of my death, until

James Mifflin
she shall have lawful issue as aforesaid, interest at eight percent upon the said five hundred Pounds. Also I give and devise unto my midwife Jane Obermeyer, bed, altogether bedding, bedsted, curtains, and the other article appertaining thereto, to be delivered into her possession, immediately after my decease. Also I give and devise to my said niece Jane, my great negro slave Peggy and negro girl of my to be delivered into her possession immediately after my decease to hold to her or her heirs freely. Also I give and devise unto my nephew Philip Young, five hundred Pounds like money, called at four shillings and eight Pence, to be paid to him in the expansion one year after my decease, and I give and devise to the said Philip the following slaves, toward a negro boy named Abraham, a mulatto, a portion of his money, to be retained in his safe-keeping, and out of my executors' hands, to him and his son forever, also I command that all persons hereinafter hereunto present have every right given to them at my Expiration of my year after my decease. Provided always and my will and intention is, that if either of my said legatees should predecease me, and should shall depart this life before the passing away of her husband, then he or she or her shall leave payable according to the terms thereof, that then and in that case such passing legate shall be deemed and taken to have failed and leaved void, and the sum of money so devised shall stand unto the widow of my said wife, also I will and direct that my executor herein aforementioned James Allspawne.

shall pay to my sister Margaret Stack, formerly Margaret Oliver wife of Christopher Oliver, above named yearly during her widowhood to be computed from the day of my decease, the sum of twenty pounds like money, upon each of my nephews Christopher Oliver, son of the said Christopher and Margaret above named, and to the rest and residue of my under real and personal chattels and wherabouts whether at present remanded or remaining together with all moneys, specie, bills of exchange and evidence of debt owing to me, to have and to hold the said estate real and personal to him the said James Oliver, his heirs and assigns forever. provided always that if the said James shall depart this life without leaving issue living at the time of his decease, then and in that case I desire the said estate real and personal to the above named Ralph Oliver, to have his heirs and assigns forever. provided that if the said Ralph Oliver shall depart this life without lawful issue living at the time of his decease, then and in that case I give and devise the said estate real and personal to the above named John Oliver and to his heirs and assigns forever. and I do hereby constitute and appoint my said nephew James Oliver sole executor of this my last. James Oliver sole executor of this my last will and testament, hereby renouncing and James Allspawne.

annulling all former wills and testaments by me heretofore made. And testifying whereof I the said James Allspawne before had another testament contained in these sheets of paper joined together, have set my hand and seal, and to every page thereof have set my hand.

and and the first day of June in the year of our Lord eighteen hundred and one James Steffensen (J.S.) signed sealed published and declared by the said James Steffensen above named as and for his last will and testament in the presence of myself at his request witness'd present and in the presence of each other having subscribed our names as witnesses thereto.

Annotations being first and added in the margin of the third page marked soft

John W. Mull.

Sarah C. Mook

Sump. Nordaeus.

Georgia: Before the court of admiralty for the county of Chattooga in the state aforesaid, personally appeared John W. Neel esquire, one of the subscribing witnesses to the foregoing last will and testament of James McFerson, late of the city of Savannah, planter deceased, who being duly sworn with, that he was present and did see the said testator sign, seal, publish and declare the same to be and contain his last will and testament; and that he was of sound & disposing mind at the time to the best of their dependent belief, and that Sarah F. Neel and Jameson Morley together with defendant subscribed their names as witnesses, at the request and in the presence of the said testator and of each other.

Leucania opaca -

16 June 1803.

Received Anti-tetanus serum cost of ordinary

John y Nuel.