Before William Stephens Esquire Mayor of the City of Savannah in the State aforesaid and Justice of the Peace for the County of Chatham.

Personally came Nathaniel Pinckston Judge of the District of Georgia who being sworn said that he was engaged by a Mr. Dufois as an Attorney to have a certain Copy of the Will of Adrian Loyer deceased established in lieu of the Original, according to a certain act of Assembly of this State that agreeable to the directions

152 of the said Act, the said copy so intended to be established was deposited in the Clerk's office and notice thereof published in the Gazette, and that the same would be established according to law, at the then next Superior Court. That at the Superior Court, due proof being made of the publication, and no person appearing to shew any cause against the establishment, thereupon it was ordered to be established, and to be recorded as the original.
But on application to the Clerk, he says the same is not in his office to be found. The Depoent further saith that Samuel Brannen being then Clerk to the Depoent, did make a copy of the said Will, which is hereunto annexed, and which the Depoent does believe to be a copy of the Paper established by the Court, as near as copies usually are the same being in the hand writing of the said Brannen, and the Depoent has reason to believe it was examined with the original - tho he cannot positively say it was so.
