

In the name of God amisse, I James Brisbane calling to mind the uncertainty of life that all men must die and therefore it behoveth all men to whom God hath been pleased to give the charge of any worldly property so to direct the disposal thereof, that they may with satisfaction render an account thereof when called on by the messenger death, and whereof a great part of what I hope to have any pretensions unto either as compensation for loss in the late unhappy American War or restoration of confiscated property came thro' my late wife, I think I should in justice pay the proper attention to my children by her, my will is that my present wife Margaret be allowed out of my Estate One hundred pounds Bahama currency for the purchase of Mourning - That all my lawful and just debts be discharged with decent funeral expenses, and that all my property left whether Real or Personal or as above express'd be appraised & valued at a reasonable sum whether the Negro by my present wife or property in possession of my son William, and that except such trifles I may herein after mention the same to be divided by sale or otherwise by a Majority of qualified Executors into two shares one share to my wife Margaret Brisbane with full liberty to her to accept such Negro as came by her as far as her share may be at their valuation with the use of such part of my household furniture as may be judged necessary by my Executors herein after mentioned during her consideration of my widow and no longer, the limitation not intended to extend to her Son's share but only to the household furniture - Item my my Will is that my son William, or his having given in a satisfactory account of what he proposes shall have as much out of the Estate as shall make the same with what he proposes equal to one third of eight Share of the whole with above mentioned exception of Special Legacies, that he have my large gold Seal Emblazoned of Hope also one fourth of such books as I may leave - Item, I give to my Son Robert one third part of my Estate as above divided that is of the eight tenths thereof with my Gold Seal with Appollo's Head - also one fourth of such books I may leave ~~as I may~~ Item I give to my Son John Stanyan Brisbane one third part of the aforesaid eight tenths of my Estate with my Gold Watch Chain & gold Seal with my Arms with one fourth of my books also such furniture of mine as is in the possession of my Sister in law his Aunt Isabella Stanyan after her death who it is my will may possess them during her life. Item to my Son Adam Brisbane I give one tenth part of my Estate as above directed to be divided one fourth part of my books with my small gold Seal with my Arms, my Cam, Sleeve Buttons, Wearing Apparel and House hold furniture in my present possession at his Mother Murray's death as may first happen - my Will further is that the respective Shares and Legacies shall be delivered up as directed by each party as of age to them their heirs & affees forever upon their giving legate agreement and discharge against my
