Ben to my son Francis, Peggy to my son John and the child Fanny to my son Daniel, should Peggy have any more children, those children are to be equally divided among my children share and share alike. Should my wife Anne, within the legal time after my death, have a child, then in that case the child is to have a share of the increase of the negroes should any of the negroes die, so as not to leave my children a negro a piece then in that case the surviving negroes are to be sold, and the proceeds divided among my children share and share alike after the death of my wife.
