

Washington Barr and S. Mordant, together with a deponent, subscribed their names at the request and in the presence of the said Testator and of each other.

Sworn in open court } James M. Bond A. W. Smith, J. C. C.

Timothy Barnard, J. C. C.

J. W. Williamson, J. C. C.

Savannah, Nov^r 11. 1809. Richard M. Hiles, Esq. Notary.
I find Executor on said Estate.

Savannah, July, 1809.

Whereas my marriage intitles me to making a Will or Devise said property after the death of my beloved husband, who has his life right therein, there other debts which have me property all of which I should wish if at the approbation of dear husband should be appropriated as the first. I am intitled to my right in my servant Winah, after my death she is jointly and separately the right of my children if it meets with approbation of Eliza Postell and S. A. Fisher, it is my wish that Winah shall be given to Rachel, Tobias receiving Black Deniah and Eliza Maria. I mention this only my wish not to restrain them. I wish my children to enjoy labours of those negroes, their life time, by equal division then for the of the children of either child. I hope this will when I am gone, no dissension among my dear relatives which I did will smooth the pillow. a dying

James Smith.

My dear husband has mentioned his intention of giving Anne A. Postell, Lydia, will be gratify me at his death by giving Violet to Mary S. Sweet. farewell my dear husband should we never meet this side eternity may you be happy is prayer of an almost dying wife. Anne Postell Georgia & Personally appeared Wm. Mordant, who being duly sworn, deposed and said, that he is well acquainted with the hand-writing of the above Testator, and that he believes the above to be the hand-writing of the said Testator.

Sworn in open Court

Wm. Mordant

Timothy Barnard, J. C. C.

J. W. Williamson, J. C. C.