Edw^d White Clerk C^t
of Ordinary

This is a Codicil to the last Will and Testament of me Thomas Young of Chatham County in in the State of Georgia esquire bearing date the thirday of September one thousand eight hundred and four. It is my Will and Mind in case my nephew Thomas Young shall happen to depart this life before me, or in case he shall survive me but shall afterwards depart this life without having conveyed assured sold or otherwise disposed of the said undivided fifth part of the residue of my real and personal Estate as well in possession as in reversion after my dear wife's decease given and devised unto him by my said Will after the decease of his Mother Sarah Kettle and the said three other undivided fifth parts thereof also given and devised to him and without making any gift or devise thereof in and by his last Will and Testament and which conveyance assurance sale or other disposition gift or Devise it is my will and intention he shall have the most ample and absolute power to make and execute if he shall so think proper) and he shall happen to die without leaving issue of his Body lawfully begotten Then and in either of the said Cases I do hereby give devise and bequeath the said first mentioned undivided fifth part of the said residue of my real and personal Estate now forsoever (subject to the life estate therein of the said Sarah Kettle) and of the said Three other undivided fifth parts thereof or so much and such parts thereof as shall not have so conveyed or disposed of and to the use of Robert
