

Georgia, Chatham County.

I, Joseph Dixon in the name of God Amen, being under bodily infirmity but being of sound mind & memory and wishing to settle my worldly affairs, before it shall please the Almighty to take me, do make, ordain, publish and declare this my last will and testament, in manner & form following.

Item 1st. I give and bequeath to my beloved friends, Jas. W. Stewart, Martin Gilbert Thomas Carlton, Charles Jamieson & John Scott all my prize money and wages due me by the United States for my services on board the late United States Brigall Essex Commodore, Porter, which are to be equally divided between them after the payment of my just debts.

Item 2^d. I leave to my friends Simon Jackson a legacy bequeathed to me by my late friend Jordan Williams, since deceased.

Item 3^d. I do hereby nominate and appoint Mr. Simon Jackson Executor to this my last will and testament, signed sealed, published and declared by the testator to be and contain his last will and testament, in the presence of as who herunto subscribe our names in the presence of each other this first day of October eighteen hundred & fourteen.

S. L. Dixon Not Pub

Joseph ^{his} Dixon
mark

John Nolan.

Georgia, Chatham County, Court of Ordinary.
14 November 1814. presents the honourable John P. Williamson, Moses Sheftale, Edward Hadden Justices of the Inferior Court of Chatham County. Personally appeared Levi S. Dixon a subscribing witness to the last will and testament of Joseph Dixon deceased, who being duly sworn did declare and say that he was present and did see the said Joseph Dixon sign, seal, publish and declare the said instrument of writing as and for his last will and testament that the said Joseph Dixon was of sound and disposing mind & memory.

of the execution thereof, to the best of the deponents knowledge and belief and that he the deponent together with John Nolan subscribed their names as witnesses thereto in the presence of each other and in the presence of the testator and at his request sworn in open Court 14 Nov. 1814 Levi J. O'Lygn

Sam^l W. Bond Clerk 14 November 1814 then appeared Simon Jackson qualified as executor of the foregoing will of Joseph Orion Recorded 5 April 1815 - Bond. clk.

Georgia Chatham County.

I, Richard D. Houston of the County of Chatham in the name of God Amen labouring under bodily infirmity but being of sound mind memory and being desirous to settle my worldly affairs pavious to that awful crisis which God has ordained for all men, do by and with the consent and approbation of my guardian James M. Wayne Esq make publish ordain and declare this my last will Testament viz.

Item 1st. I give devise & bequeath to my beloved wife Nancy Houston and to my infant daughter Sarah the house in which I now reside in Washington Wards together with all the house and kitchen furniture appertaining to the same and to the child with which my said wife Nancy is pregnant I give devise and bequeath (when born) our equal share of the above premises and I do hereby nominate my said Guardian J. M. Wayne Esq. their trustee to the same.

Item 2^d. I give devise & bequeath to my beloved mother Dolly Houston my small house or shed with the ground on which it stands on the back part of Lot No. 7. Carpenters Row Washington Wards and also the sum of fifty dollars to be paid to her out of my estate in six months after my decease & I do nominate and appoint J. M. Wayne Esq her trustee for the same Item 3^d. I leave the children of my sister Esther Lloyd & Elizabeth Gordon the sum of fifty Dollars to be