To all and singular the faithful in Christ to whom these our present letters shall come or whom the matters therein written as it may hereafter in any wise concern Charles by some provision Archbishop of Canterbury, primate of all England and Metropolitan Lord Bishops in our Lord's See interesting and with this intention shall be given to these presents and as much know and will that it be thoroughly made known to you that on searching the Registry of our Court of Canterbury in the Archives thereof there well and faithfully preserved and kept we have found among other things in the same that on the tenth day of January in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixteen at London before the worshipful Samuel Daniel Doctor of Laws and Chancellor of the Court, Thomas Smith Esquire Doctor of Laws and Master of the Bench or Comptroller of our Consistory Court of Canterbury, officers lawfully constituted, the last Will and Testament with a Codicil thereto of Thomas Bonds late of Baker Street Common quarters in the County of Middlesex deceased having child borne and at the time of his death Bonds' child or issue in Bonds' living or jurisdictions sufficient to frame the jurisdiction of our Consistory Court of Canterbury aforesaid was proved, approved and Registered and authentication of all and singular the Bonds' child and issue of the said deceased or any one concerning the said Will was granted to Rebecca Bonds formerly the sister of the said deceased and the sole executrix named in his said Will as having been already sworn, well and faithfully to administer the same and to make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the said Bonds' child and issue and to exhibit the same into the Registry of our said
