

and at the time of separating the same, I found and supposed and among the best of them against knowledge will bear that he had separated and divided totally and from all and other interest all of place in it. He thought that nature is proper to the separation of the said land into two parts or portions of the said estate, at his request and in the presence of each other.

In the name of God Amen. William Cooper of Saratoga County, being sick in body, but of sound and sane mind, for which I rely to the name of God, down to this my last will and testament as follows, viz

Article 14. It is my desire that after my death my bridge personally interest without any remuneration, now or hereafter Article 15. I desire that all my just debts before as soon as possible by my executors, let be hereafter mentioned, from the proceeds of such portions my property as they see fit to dispose of or the residue of the same, as the directors may think deem most expedient - of the said estate, that my debt being paid, all the property, whether real or personal which I do possess or shall be so, shall be in the best state of improvement and increase that shall be practicable under the care of my executors, named executors, and for the following purposes, viz.

in the first place it is my wish that from the proceeds of my said property my dear beloved sons Har, James and John be maintained with proper Board and Clothing & every thing necessary, with a suitable education, until they shall be of a proper age for entering upon regular apprenticeship to some good business or calling. And when this purpose shall have been effected, it is in the second place my wish the whole remainder of my estate be inured or to be divided, share and share alike between my eldest daughter Anna and my faithful and well beloved wife
