

With the blessing of God I Ordain this my last will and Testament. I desire and desire therefore say nothing about payment to any except to the Planters Bank, should they demand more than Fifty pr. Ct. which I have already paid. I am indebted and not otherwise. I desire and request of my beloved wife (if I should please God to take me first) to take and content herself with a Chimpanzee which will be considerable if God continues to bless and thus after death will be at her own disposal provided she remains a widow, the whole of my property I desire may as soon as convenient personal and real estate stock may be Equally divided between my said wife and Children and the negroes belonging to the Children I wish may be kept out and the money arising therefrom laid out in Bank stock or put to interest until they arrive at full age to receive it. It is further my wish that the money on hand, debts due me, and my Bank stock or the proceeds of it, say the yearly dividend may be applied for the maintenance and education of my Children, my Crop of Cotton on hand at now as www.georgiapioneers.com sold and the money laid out in Bank stock and equally divided as above mentioned should the Children arrive at fill up. I am writing you of my little flowering bushes and all the rest. The 100 pages. They are little and my dear little sister Mary my friends of the last and last.

plants and rocks here is the very best breeding place that I have ever seen. The birds are very numerous.

signed and published and attested by the above named John H. Berry and for his use and behoof.

A. Henry C.

the presence of John about 20 or 25
O. S. built
Hampden Boston

In the trust of ordinary of taxation
 In the state of the first and second of the first and second

Mary M. Hurling, at the corner of Third Street, New York, and as a result has been for her children & Mary M. Hurling, now the son of her father, Mary M. Hurling & Mary M. Hurling, in front of her Mary M. Hurling, now the

John D. Miller, Henry & John Miller Henry at Cambridge & Boston of the State of Vermont of John D. Miller & Co.

The same questions to each student -
 1. Why is it that you do not have the same results
 2. All about that book is very hard and what happens to

[illegible][illegible][illegible][illegible]

georgiapioneers.com and I have no other information to give you. I have no other information to give you. I have no other information to give you.

www.georgiapioneers.com

Chatham Will Bk H

partly in the presence of as Commissioners
 Commr Louis de Grossepointe Commr
 Robert Ellis Martin Commr

March 22 1826

Obidiah C. Cobb aged about thirty now being duly sworn does answer to make to the undersigned interrogatories proposed answers as follows viz. At the first direct Int. answers say.

Int 1st I know the parties Int 2nd I was present at the time stated myself together with John Cobb H. W. Cobb and Martha Wells signed the same as witnesses in the presence of the testator and in the presence of each other.

Int 3rd He was of sound mind and disposing memory according to my belief.

Int 4th He bequeathed his will to Mr. H. W. Cobb what he said at the time of delivery I know not more than he wished him to keep the same. Whether he Mr. Cobb kept the same in his possession from the time of delivery know not, but upon being requested to search for the same I found it among other papers of Mr. Cobb, of his decedent. I am the writer of Mr. Cobb's

Int 5th I know nothing more Done in the presence of us

Obidiah C. Cobb
 3

Commr
 Edwin Louis de Grossepointe Commr
 Robert Ellis Martin Commr

Read
 Read

Marcus Flournoy et al. v. Chatham County Court of Ordinary 8th mo Robert W. Flournoy et al. v. March 1826

In the above case was considered and ordered by the Court that the caveat filed be sustained; that the will offered for probate be set aside and that the first will, made by the said Robert Flournoy decedent bearing date the 25th day of September in the year then hundred and thirty and now offered to the Court by the said caveat be established as the last will and testament of the said Robert Flournoy and that the same be admitted to probate.

Recorded 8th Septem 1826

John E. M. Bond

for the whole proceedings

Vide minutes & original paper 1111