

Georgia Chatham County

This is the last will and testament of Mary Bugel of the City of Savannah Widow of John Christophers Bugel deceased.

I give devise and bequeath unto Israel Wadman of Effingham County in trust Four shares of Stock part of Eleven Shares of Stock part of the Eleven shares which I hold in the Planters Bank of the State of Georgia, to hold the said four shares of Stock unto the said Israel Wadman in trust to and for the use benefit and behoof of my Grand daughter Rosannah Cramer, her heirs and assigns, but in case she shall marry the said four shares of Stock shall be held in no wise liable to the debt or contract of her husband, but may be disposed of ~~her~~ by her notwithstanding her marriage by will or otherwise.

I give devise and bequeath all the rest of my Bank Stock unto all the rest of my Bank Stock unto all the rest of my Grand Children living at my death to be equally divided between them share and share alike.

I constitute and appoint Israel Wadman the Executor of this my last will and testament revoking all other wills and declaring this to be my last.

September 15th 1825

Signed sealed published and declared Mary Bugel LS by the testatrix as her last will and testament in the presence of us who mark

Chatham Co. Will Book H 1817-1827

www.georgiapioneers.com in his presence at her request and in the presence of the other two brothers namely as follows

James Patton
James Cooper
H. Cooper
(and my name) for a deed

[illegible]

September 18th 1855

August 25 Ladies' Bazaar published and distributed by the Institute as an advertisement and Circular to their offering will, rather than as a list of the products and the price of each. It has been now named as a catalogue.
From Brookline
Volume Copies
R. R. Taylor

Rt Hon

State of Georgia { In the Court of Ordinary, Chatham County { January Term, 1826.
 Present the Hon.
 Judge of said Court.

State of Georgia } January term 1824 Chatham County } Present the Honorable John Cumming } Anthony Porter of Chatham County sitting for one the Superior Court of Chatham County sitting for one many purposes. Personally appeared Richard M. Cuyler one of the subscribers

Personally appeared Richard D. Cuyler of, a learned attorney at Law one of the subscribing witnesses to the annexed instrument of writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Mrs. Mary Bugels late of Chatham County widow deceased, who being duly sworn deposed and said that he was present and did see the said Mary Bugels deceased sign and seal and heard her pronounce and publish and declare the said instrument of writing to be and contain her last will and testament, that the said Mary Bugels at the time of executing the same

Mary Guy, Es. 24
X mark of doubt and supposing, mind and memory will be of the deepest knowledge and belief that is the deepest and narrowest, and intensest hope, both of heaven and of hell, and of the future of the world, and of the future of the human race, and of the future of the human mind, and of the future of the human in the presence of each other.

And the said Richard the deceased, appearing contrary to the aforesaid document, appearing purporting to be a power of attest with and last testament of the said Mary Magdalen being further sworn, deposed and said that he was present and did see the said Mary Magdalen decedent sign and seal and read her purportance publick and certain thereof last testament contained purporting to be and contain a will to her said last will and testament to be taken and sworn as aforesaid. That the said Mary Magdalen decedent was at the time of signing the same of sound mind and perfect memory and memory with full use of her reason, knowledge and understanding.
That he the deponent and the said James Bostons and James Cooper subscribers thereto were and acting as the due executors of the said Estate at the request of the said Mary Magdalen decedent and her presence and in presence of each other —
Given under our open Court that seal } R. R. Conyer day of February 1826

Saml. M. Bond Clerk of the Court of ordinary Chas. County

Recorded 28th February 1826

Records 20 - February 1828 5th February 1828. Thomas appeared at the Court and was sworn and a Certificate of Mary English deceased and qualified as by taking the oath prescribed by law and read the following We accordingly

Saml. H Bond acc-

Chatham Co. Will Book H 1817-1827
www.georgiapioneers.com