

As in the name of God Amen
I Henry McHoy being of sound memory sincere & without any doubt to God the giver thereof & my Duty to the world from whence it came but as to my worldly effect it is my wish and desire that it should be distributed in the following my manner to wit

First it is my wish and desire that all my East debt be paid including my Debt to Ball & General Expenses

Secondly I wish & bequeath to Joseph & John William McHoy my sons the following two Negro Slaves Roger & Westgas to be equally divided between them with and that my house & all other House hold & kitchen Furniture be sold to the best advantage for the purpose of defraying said expenses and after all necessary Expenses are paid that the surplus if any be paid over for the use of my said two sons and I appoint my friend William Harrison to be my whole & sole Executor of this my last Will and Testament
