

State of Georgia
Chatham County

In the Court of Chancery
Chatham 23 September 1843

Attest

of Chatham County having a coming to wit

Indorses of the before named Boysen Deltens before a subscribing witness to the foregoing Will of Boysen Williams deceased who being duly sworn he deposes that he was present and saw the said Boysen Williams deceased sign by writing his name and a seal and heard him pronounce full and entire the Will and instrument of writing to be and contain his last will and testament; that the said Boysen Williams deceased was at the time of executing the same of sound and disposing mind and memory to the best of this deponent's knowledge and belief that he has before subscribed his name and Boysen Boysen made his will as aforesaid therein at the request of the said Boysen Williams, in his presence and in the presence of each other

Sworn in open Court

R. Deltens

23rd Sept 1843

Attest: Wm. C. Deltens 23 September 1843 Then appeared Thomas Deltens and a quacra as Executors of the foregoing Will of Boysen Williams deceased by telling the last provisions by law and ordinance to be accordingly

Attest: Wm. C. Deltens

Received of 2nd July 1843 & examined by James M. Collier 2nd July 1843

I do solemnly swear to take care of my wife and in case of my death to sell to the best advantage to pay all debts and provide according to his knowledge fully and

Wm. C. Deltens

James M. Collier

Roger Power

Witness

Chatham Court of Chancery

11th October 1843

Chatham County

Present the Deceased Thomas Deltens

and John P. Williams

Witness of the Superior Court having Ordinary Jurisdiction

Notarially appear

Roger Power of Savannah who being duly sworn he deposes and say that he was present and saw the James M. Collier of Savannah before a subscribing witness sign the annexed instrument of writing and a seal and heard him pronounce full and entire the same to be and contain his last will and testament that the said James M. Collier was at the time of making the same of sound and disposing mind and memory to the best of this deponent's knowledge and belief Sworn in open Court