Sept. 17. I was married and baptised, and my dear spouse & I then, at my Plantation on the Island of St. Vincent, as Captain Wright writes in his Journal, "were as happy as the Son of David and of the Lion of Judah in the Service of Belshazzar." I have with the opportunity, taken an extended part of my said Plantation in the Colony of the Antigua District, and the opportunity I have and to hold the same, under the sanction of the Board for and during the Term of his mortal life and after his death to his Children if he leaves any share and share either there now and afterwards, but if he dies leaving no child or Children then to my right Heirs at his death.

I have then, as the said Deed is worded, and as my Executors wish, I do devise and bequeath unto my Executors some after named part of the River in and between of them and fourth part of all that my Trust-plot situate and being in the City of Savannah and Township of the said City by the Water (C) in the right of the said fourth lying the Eastern Four fourths of the said fourth lying on Johnson's Edge west of the said Lot fronting on Johnson's Edge and to hold the improvements thereon to have and to hold the few acres of land retained out of my plantation on Williamstown Island at Southampton Point; I do trust that they or the survivors of them or the Government or administrators of such survivors shall hold two acres shared in the point for the sole and separate use of my daughter Mary / the Wife of John Sumner and her heirs, two acres next adjoining for the sole and separate use of my daughter Anne O. Sumner and her heirs, two acres next adjoining to the use of my daughter Margaret / the Wife of James Weston / and her heirs, two acres next adjoining to the use of my daughter Sarah & her heirs to be held for the sole separate & exclusive benefit of all my said daughters, and the remaining two acres the eldest of my said children Sarah and her heirs, and if either or any of my said children shall die without lawful issue living at the time of her or her death, her or his share of said land shall go to the survivor, and the whole of said two acres is to be inherited the survivor of my said children, of all the rest and without lawful issue, living at the time of their death if they should die leaving lawful issue, the Lord shall decide it and bless, and I hope that God will intend a better end to this

I again desire and implore with my Great Children Samuel and Ephraim the forgiveness of my sin, that I will that my Plantation on Mount Zion be a land of life To us by with all the affections and thoughts belonging / amongst the Jews of Israel at Samaria's great capture to the right given to my Deceit and thoughtless in the secret places of my still to be here and to be to their and Mount Zion and abundant cause, with the special reservation afterwards to my Deceit and thoughtless with the Deceit and light, for and during the time of their natural life / to take effect after the resurrection afterwards / and after their death to their Children.
 / our family of said Plantation to the Children of each generation as afore said / if they have any children there said, then living and seized, but if either of my Great Children Samuel or Ephraim should die leaving no children living at the time of her death, then the survivor of my said Great Children
