

In the name of God, Amen, I, William J. Norton of the City of Savannah, State of Georgia, late of Bergham District, State of South Carolina being of sound and disposing mind and memory, but much afflicted by bodily disease, knowing the uncertainty of life do make, create and ordain this as my last Will and Testament, revoking all others by me heretofore made

First I direct that after my decease all of my just debts shall be paid as soon as the money can be raised from the assets of my Estate, allowing a reasonable time to effect the same.

Secondly, I give and bequeath to my beloved Wife - Ann Stephens Norton, all of my Estate, both personal and real of whatever Character or description it may consist to her and at her entire disposal and direction, to sell and dispose of according to her wisdom and discretion. And lastly I do hereby appoint my dear Wife Ann Stephens Norton, my sole Executor, to this my last Will, Signed Sealed, and duly Executed by me this Eighteenth day of February in the year One Thousand Eight Hundred and Thirty four in the presence

George Shick.
Ans. E. Hoag.
Ann C. Jones.

William J. Norton

[illegible]