

of Georgia

Chatham County} In the name of God I Beg. I — Andrew Marshall a free man of color, of the City of Savannah, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, do make and publish this my last Will and Testament.

New First. I commit my soul unto God, knowing no happiness in the world to come, and desire that my body may be buried in my family vault in the graveyard in Savannah.

New Second - I give devise and bequeath to my wife Sarah Marshall, the Southern half of lot number Nineteen (19) situated at the corner of Farm and Bryan Streets in the City of Savannah, with the improvements thereon; also my household and kitchen furniture, my four wheeled carriage and one horse, to have and to hold the same for and during the term of her natural life, and after her death to be equally divided between my sons Joseph and George their heirs executors & administrators forever - (Grand children to represent their parents and law per Stirpes and not per Capita, and after the death of either of them without child or children, or representatives of children, then to the survivor his heirs executors & administrators and so on forever)

New Third; I give devise and bequeath unto my son George Marshall the Northern Half of said lot Number Nineteen (19) containing a double stone building on Farm Street and a wooden building back of it in the farm, with all the improvements thereon to have and to hold the same to him his heirs executors & administrators and so on But should my said son George die before me without leaving a child or children or representatives of children living at the time of his death, then immediately after his death to my wife Sarah Marshall, and to my son Joseph, so long as they both shall live, and after the death of my said wife Sarah, to my son Joseph, his heirs executors & administrators and so on forever —

New Fourth - I give devise and bequeath to Georgiana the daughter of Henry Houston Four shares of stock in the Marine and Fire Insurance Bank of the State of Georgia

New Fifth - I give devise and bequeath unto my son Joseph Marshall Lot number Eleven (11) in that part of the City of Savannah, now was the village of St. Gall with the improvements thereon, to have and to hold the same to him his heirs executors & administrators and so on forever,

New Sixth, I give devise and bequeath my silver watch, with all my wearing apparel unto my Cousin

Andrew, a slave now owned by Dr. Marshall.
 Item Seventy All the rest and residue of my property, not herein specifically bequeathed (in default of which I desire that all my debts may be paid) after the payment of my debts, I give devise and bequeath unto my wife Sarah, and to my sons Joseph and George to be equally divided between them their Heirs Executors Administrators and assigns forever; But should either of them die, without leaving a child or children or representatives of children, living at the time of their death, they to the survivors or survivor of them, their and his heirs, Executors Administrators and assigns forever.

Item Eighty I nominate constitute and appoint Frederick C. Fisher John W. Anderson and Grizzley Woodbridge Coopers, Executors of this my last Will and Testament.

Given witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this Thirtieth day of July in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty two

Andrew Marshall {S.S.}

Witnessed, sealed, published and declared by his first wife and his son in my presence Testator in my presence and in his presence and in the presence of each other, at this request have signed our names as witnesses hereto

Valentine Stanton
 Elizabeth Ellet
 Lydia A. Ward

We Benjamin P. Daniell and Fannall P. Daniell do solemnly swear that this writing contains the true last will of the within named Thomas P. Daniell deceased so far as we know, or believe, and that we will & will well truly execute the same, by paying first the debts and then the legacies contained in the said will, as far as this goods and chattels will thence extend and the law charge us, and that we will make a true and perfect inventory of all such goods and chattels so fully as may serve us before me this 24th day of April 1854 - John Bills O.C.C. { B. P. Daniell Fannall P. Daniell }

State of Georgia }
Chatham County } Court of Ordinary Present - John Dilby Esq; Ordinary for the County of Chatham - Personally appeared Joseph Field a subscriber witness to the annexed instrument of writing, purporting to be the Last Will and Testament of Andrew Marshall late of Chatham County deceased who, being duly deposed deposeth and saith that he was present and did see the said instrument of writing duly executed by the said Andrew Marshall, his deponent further saith that the said Andrew Marshall at the time of executing the said instrument of writing, was to the best of deponents knowledge and belief of sound and disposing mind, memory and understanding; and that Joseph Field (the deponent) and Valentine Blanton and John C. Ward in the presence of each other, and of the said Andrew Marshall and at his request, signed their names as witnesses to the due execution of the same Sware to this Ninth day of April 1857 } Joseph Field
John Dilby O.C.C. }

I, J. Field, of Woodbridge do solemnly swear that this writing contains the true last Will of the within named Andrew Marshall deceased, so far as I know or believe; and that I will well and truly execute the same by paying first the debts and then the legacies contained in the said Will, as far as the goods and chattels will therunto extend and the said Charles me, and that I will make a true and perfect inventory of all such goods and chattels - So Help me God Sware to before me this } Of your Woodbridge Sift day of April 1857 }
John Dilby O.C.C. }

State of Georgia
Chatham County - The last Will and Testament of Robert Raiford of the City of Savannah, in the County of Chatham and State of Georgia - I Robert Raiford, knowing the uncertainty of my mortal life, and being of sound mind and memory do make and publish this my last Will and Testament hereby revoking and making void all other Wills by me at any time heretofore made (particularly those of 1st May A.D. 1853 and 13 April 1854) - All judgments against me, both as principal and security, have been settled, as well as paid as well as record as receipts in my possession (the judgment in favor of Orrin Boyd being settled with a sale the area of Charleston) - It is my wish that at my death, my body be placed in a yellow pine (the growth of this state) Coffin