State of South Carolina

Beaufort District --- In the name of god amen, I John J. Brooks of the State and district above named knowing the uncertainty of this mortal life, and being now of full health, though of sound and disposing mind and memory, do make and publish this my last will and testament, hereby revoking all former other wills by me at any time heretofore made I First I commit my soul to god, who gave it and my body to the earth to be buried in a decent and christian like manner by my Executor hereinafter named, Second after the payment of my funeral expenses and just debts, I do hereby give bequest and devise unto my friend Alexander R. Lawton of Savannah, all the rest and residue of my property of every description whatsoever, and all the Estates and interest to which I may be entitled or have a claim to, to have and to hold the same in Trust to permit my niece and her children to have use and enjoy the rents issues and profits, and income to be derived from the same, freed from all the debts and not subject to the control of her present or any future husband, and after the death of my said niece Mary Ann Baker (wife of Francis W. Baker) before referred to, but not named to divide the said property, and Estate share and share alike among such children as she may have living at her death, freed from all trusts and conditions and that said Alexander R. Lawton is hereby authorized to sell and dispose of any portion or the whole of any Estate, and reinvest the proceeds in such other property as he may think most conducive to the comfort and advantage of my said niece and her children, but the purchaser shall receive a good title to the same, without any obligation to look to the reinvestment of the purchase money, And the said Alexander R. Lawton is hereby authorized and empowered to convey and transfer all the property and Estate that he may acquire, under this clause unto some other fit and proper person to be selected by him, who shall hold the same for the purposes and upon the trusts herein expressed, and upon such conveyances, transfers and deliveries, ^{of the said} Alexander R. Lawton, shall be released and discharged from any further duties and responsibilities as Trustee in the premises - Third I hereby nominate and appoint my friend Alexander R. Lawton of Savannah, as my
