

deposeth and saith that he was present, and did see the said instrument of writing duly executed by the said Owen O'Reilly. And deponent further saith that the said Owen O'Reilly, at the time of executing the said instrument of writing, was, to the best of deponent's knowl-edge and belief of sound and disposing mind, memory and understanding; and that Bernard Roden (the deponent and Thomas Clark & Chas. O'Reilly and Saml. S. Hart, in the pres-ence of each other and of the said Owen O'Reilly and at his re-quest, signed their names as witnesses to the due execution of the same.

Sworn to before me in open Court this 7th day of February 1853. Bernard Roden

I do solemnly swear that this writing contains the true last will of the within named Owen O'Reilly deceased, so far as I know or believe; and that I will well and truly execute the same, by paying first the debts and then the legacies contained in the said Will, as far as the goods and chattels will thereto extend and the law charge me; and that I will make a true and perfect inventory of the said goods and chattels. So Help me God.
