

I prefer to this own impulses of kindness - As to my Negroes I may have some peculiar impressions - It looks upon them as belonging to the Great Human family, and probably I may have treated them with too much indulgence, but I trust that same lenity may be extended to them, and if ever sold not to be separated where their affections are interested

State of Georgia

This is the last will and Testament of Jacob DeSodketter Junior, Attorney at Law, a native of Charleston State of South Carolina, and for many years a resident of the City of Savannah, State of Georgia.
Desirous of settling my earthly affairs while I have capacity so to do, and disposing of my estate in a manner agreeable to my wishes and which I shall plainly and fully set forth so that disputation may be avoided, do make public and declare this to be my last will and Testament hereby revoking all others by me previously made.

First - I should it please the Honorable to take me from this world while I am in the City of Savannah, I direct and request that my body be interred as near to that of my deceased Mother as can be and a suitable monumental Tomb erected to her be erected and and the iron rail be enlarged and completed so as to enclose the
