Will of Robert M. Chantton

Georgia Chatham County.

I Robert M. Chantton, Attorney at law, do make and publish this my last will and testament, hereby revoking all former wills by me made

I commit my soul to God, with entire faith in the merits and atonements of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, in whom I steadfastly believe.

I give, devise, and bequeath unto my beloved wife, Margaret, all my estate, real, personal =al and mixed, choses in action, debts due to me, moneys to accrue under the policies of Insurance on my life and every thing else that I may die possessed of, or entitled to, to have and to hold, to her, her heirs executors, administrators and assigns forever, with power to sell and dispose of the same, either for the payment of debts, or for her own purposes, at any time or place, and either at public or private sale, and upon such terms as she may think fit. As my Estate will be ample to pay the few debts that I may leave I ask the Court of Ordinary to relieve her from the painful & unnecessary task of making an Inventory and Appraisement, substituting in place thereof, an acknowledgement in writings that the Estate that has come to her possession is sufficient to pay every debt against it.

In case my said wife should die before me, or perish with me, I give, devise, and bequeath all my said Estate, choses &c to my dear children, who may be living at the time of my death, share and share alike, to them and each of them, his or her heirs, executors, administrators and assigns forever - I appoint my said wife, the testamentary Guardian of my Estate, and and the sole Executrix of this my will.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal at Savannah aforesaid this eleventh day of July, in the year of our Lord 1854
Robert M. Chantton

One thousand, eight hundred and Fifty one.
 Signed, sealed, published and declared by testator, as and for his last will and testament in our presence,
