Chatham County - In the name of God Amen - I swear much as I am about to be engaged in the morrow in mortal combat with another, the result of which God alone can foresee, and inasmuch as I desire to do justice to those who are dearest to me, I therefore intend this as my Last Will and Testament - Item 1st I wish my debts paid as soon as I am enabled with the least diminution of my Capital (there shall be not be any diminution thereof, as my Estate cannot be sold in a year and a proper investment thereof should pay my debts in a year. Item 2nd I do hereby devise and bequeath my Lands on the Red River in the County of Hempstead and the State of Arkansas (being the half of a body of Land amounting to 2400 acres, more or less, devised and bequeathed by my uncle Josiah E. Danell late of the County of Claiborne in the State of Mississippi to my father, William E. Danell and subsequently by him conveyed to my brothers Estlin and Danell and to me, to my two eldest brothers, Benjamin R. and Estlin E. Danell to be divided equally between them Item 3rd I do hereby further hereby will and bequeath to my said two brothers, Benjamin R. and Estlin E. Danell to be divided equally between them, with the exceptions hereinafter named, all my personal property and all my other property, of whatsoever nature it may be, together with all the debts due me, and all my assets. Item 4th I do hereby will to my younger Brother William & Daniel all my Law Books, of which the greater part are now in the possession of John Hammond of Atlanta, and to whom I owe a few, which should not exceed $50 of which he has never kept me an account and the remainder is with my brother Elnathan & Daniel. The rest of my Books including my large collection of the ancient Classics, I leave to my Brothers to divide among themselves according to their respective tastes. Item 5th I do hereby will and bequeath to my Brother Elnathan my Flat-irish dress Coat, whom I love very dearly, to my friend Elnathan & Daniel my best tied to my Brother Elnathan my boy Rich-ard with my Irish coat I wish him to keep about him and beat him kindly for me sake, to my Brother Ben. my blue button to my sister Maria my studs, to my Brother Elnathan my Paquettoys with my top Gunst and my Constable Rifle to my Brother Charles to my wife Maria my watch and my Mother with the chain & seals which belonged to it, to my niece Fannie my diamonds & emerald ring in my hand, to my Brother Elnathan my own chain & studs which I wear and to the other members of my family. Item 6th I do hereby further will and direct that my Brothers Benjamin & Elnathan & Daniel shall be the executor of this my Last Will & Testament, and I do further direct that my Brother Elnathan & Daniel shall have the possession entirely of my effects and papers, and that they have the right to destroy any of my Correspondence & papers which they may think proper, and to return any which should be returned to the donor of them. Item 7th I do further desire to state that my only reason for not leaving to my Brother William & Daniel an equal share of my property, is that I know him to be on good terms with my father, whereas I think the relation to be different between my said father and my said two elder Brothers.
