for Georgia

State of Georgia

Chatham County — In the name of God Amen — I was much as I am about to be engaged in the morrow in mortal combat with another. The result of which God alone can foresee, and inasmuch as I desire to do justice to those who ^{are} nearest and dearest to me — I therefore intend this as my Last Will and Testament — Item 1st I wish my debts paid as soon as convenient with the least diminution of my Capital (there shall be not be any diminution thereof, as my Estate cannot be used in a year and a proper investment thereof should pay my debts in a year. Item 2nd I do hereby devise and bequeath my Lands on the Red River in the County of Hempstead and the State of Arkansas (being the half of a body of Land amounting to 2400 acres, more or less, devised and bequeathed by my uncle Smith C. Daniell late of the County of Claiborne in the State of Mississippi to my father William C. Daniell and subsequently by him conveyed to my brother Nathaniel C.
Daniell and to me; to my two eldest brothers, Benjamin R. and Nathaniel C. Daniell to be divided equally between them Item 3rd I do hereby further hereby will and bequeath to my said two brothers, Benjamin R. and Nathaniel C. Daniell to be divided equally among them, with the exceptions
