 she may after her decease) and from and after her death, then to my children by the said Mary Fleetwood and to their heirs and assigns forever, share and share alike as tenants in common and not as joint tenants the representatives or representatives of each of them to stand in the place of the parent. But should my said wife Mary Fleetwood, survive me and in that event, I do hereby dispose of my Estate in manner following - I give and bequeath unto my said wife Mary all of the one seventh part of all my Estate, both real and personal, to have and to hold the said one seventh part of all my said Estate, both real and personal, unto my said wife Mary, for and during her natural life, and from and after her death to my children by the said Mary and to their heirs and assigns forever, share and share alike. And all the rest and residue of my Estate, both real and personal I give devise and bequeath unto my said children, to have and to hold the same to them and to their heirs and assigns forever, share and share alike, as tenants in common and not as joint tenants it being understood that the representatives or representatives of each of my said children, shall stand in the place of their deceased parent. And lastly I do hereby certify that you dear wife Mary Fleetwood sole Executrix

Mary Thetwood, do solemnly swear that this writing contains the true last will of the within named Green Thetwood deceased so far as I know or believe: and that I will well and truly execute the same, by paying first the debts, and then the legacies contained in the said will, as far as his goods and chattels will therewith extend and the law charge me; and that I will make a true and just inventory of all such goods and chattels so left me &c.
