Chatham County. }

In the name of God, Amen!

I, Elizabeth Tulton, at present of the County and State aforesaid, widow, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, do hereby ordain and publish this my last Will and Testament, in manner and form following, hereby revoking all former wills by me at any time heretofore made.

Item First. Immediately after my death and decent Christian burial, I desire that all my just debt be paid by my executor herein after named.

Item Second. After the payment of all my just debt, if any, by my executor as aforesaid, I give, devise and bequeath three shares of the stock of the Central Hall Road and Danville Company of Georgia, unto my son Silas Tulton, to him, his heirs, executors, administrators and assigns, forever.

Item Third. I give, devise and bequeath, after the payment of my debt as aforesaid, Two Hundred Dollars, unto the said Silas Tulton, his executors and administrators, in trust, for the sole and separate use, benefit and behoof of my daughter Martha C. Bourquin, widow, during her natural life, free from the control, contrivance and liabilities of any future husband; and, after her decease, then to the child or children of the said Martha C. Bourquin alive at the time of her death - the representation or representatives of a child of said Martha C. Bourquin, that is, of a child dying in her lifetime, to represent and take the share which its parent would have taken if alive at the time of the death of said Martha C. Bourquin.

Item Fourth. After the payment of all my just debt, if any, by my executor as aforesaid, I give, devise and bequeath unto Isaac C. Tulton and David Tulton, my sons, and Mary C. Wards, my daughter residing in the State of Alabama, Five Dollars each, to them for their own use, forever.

Item Fifth. After the payment of my just debt, as aforesaid, if any, by my executor I give, devise and bequeath all the rest and residue of all my estate and property of every kind and of whatsoever nature, remaining after the payment of the aforesaid legacies, unto Silas C. Tulton and William C. Tulton, my sons, and the children of my deceased daughter Elizabeth Ann Hart, that is to say, one share of said rest and residue to said John B. Fulton, one share to said William F. Fulton, and, one share to said children of my said deceased daughter Elizabeth Ann Hart, their heirs, executors, administrators and assigns forever.

Item Sixth. I carry this my will fully into effect, I issue and direct my executor, soon after the payment of all my debts, to sell all my real effects, property and rights of property - except the said three shares of Central Rail Road and Banking Company of Georgia's Stock, which he is to retain for himself - and convert the same into money to be divided as hereinbefore specified - the two hundred dollars for my said daughter Martha C. Bromwich and her children, to be by him invested in productive property to be by him held in trust for my said daughter Martha C. Bromwich and her children, upon the trusts, limitations and restrictions mentioned in the third item of this my will.

Item Seventh. Lastly, I do nominate and appoint my said son, Elias Fulton, to be the sole executor of this my last will and testament.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal, this twenty first day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty eight.
