

their names as witnesses to the due execution of the same.

Witness to this Thirtieth
day of December 1862
Dominick A O'Byrne
A.C.C.

Walter S. Chisholm

I do solemnly swear that this writing contains the true last will and codicil of the within named John Horn deceased, so far as I know or believe; and that I will well and truly execute the same, by paying first the debts and then the legacies contained in the said will, as far as the goods and chattels will thereunto extend and the law charge me; and that I will make a true and perfect inventory of all such goods and chattels - So Help me God.

Witness to this thirtieth
day of January 1862
Dominick A O'Byrne
A.C.C.

Lemuel L. Frier

Finis

State of Georgia
Chatham County

In the name of God Amen, I William Giles of the City of Savannah County and State aforesaid, being weak in bodily health, but of sound and disposing mind and memory, Do make and publish this my last will and Testament, herein revoking and making null and void all other will or wills by me at any time heretofore made.

I resign my Soul to the hands of Almighty God who gave it; and my body I commit to the Earth, to be buried at the discretion of my Executor hereinafter named; and my worldly Estate I give and bequeath as follows.

I give and bequeath unto my beloved Brother John Giles of the City of Dublin, in Ireland Ten (10) Shares of the Capital Stock of the South Western Rail Road, and this Stock I give and bequeath to him forever.

I give and bequeath unto my beloved Brother James Giles, of the City of London in England Four (4) Shares of the Capital Stock of the Albany and Gulf Rail Road This Stock I give and bequeath unto him forever.

I leave the rest and residue of my property to my Executor, viz: it, to pay and discharge my funeral expenses and my just debts, and in case that it should not be sufficient to do, I direct him to make up the deficit from the bequests above given "pro rata" before paying the same over. In case however there should be any surplus left from the rest and residue of my property after paying my just debts and funeral expenses, I desire my Executor to give it to my friend John Giles, of the City of Dublin, in Ireland.

Lastly

I nominate constitute and appoint my executor friend William Green of the City of Savannah Executor of this my last Will and Testament.

In Witness Whereof I have hereunto set my Hand and affixed my Seal this Twenty Sixth Day of December in the year of Our Lord One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty One.

W. Giles

Signed, Sealed, Declared and Published, by the said Testator, as and for his last Will and Testament, in our presence, who at his request and in the presence of each other have subscribed our names as witnesses thereto.

Alex^r McHardy
James D. Myrardice
Horace Morse

State of Georgia }
Chatham County }

Court of Ordinary

Present - Dominick A. O'Byrne Esq. Ordinary for the County of Chatham.

Personally appeared Alexander McHardy, subscribing witness to the aforesaid instrument of writing, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of William Giles late of Chatham County deceased, who being duly sworn, deposed and said that he was present, and did see the said instrument of writing duly executed by the said William Giles. And deponent further saith that the said William Giles at the time of executing the said instrument of writing, was, to the best of deponent's knowledge and belief, of sound and disposing mind, memory and understanding; and that Alexander McHardy (the deponent) and James D. Myrardice and Horace Morse in the presence of each other, and of the said William Giles and at his request, signed their names as witnesses to the due execution of the same.

Sworn to before me this Third
day of January 1862

Dominick A. O'Byrne
J. C. C.

Alex^r McHardy

I do solemnly swear that this writing contains the true last Will of the within named William Giles deceased, so far as I know or believe: and that I will well and truly execute the same, by paying first the debt and then the legacies contained in the said Will, as far as his goods and chattels will thereunto extend and the law charges the; and that I will make a true and perfect inventory of all such goods and chattels - So Help me God.

Sworn to before me this

Thirteenth day of January 1862

Dominick A O'Donnell
A.C.C.

J. M. Greene

Will

State of Georgia: }

Chatham County. }

In the name of God, Amen!

I, Elizabeth Tulton, at present of the County aforesaid widow, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, do make ordain and publish this my last Will and Testament, in manner and form following, hereby revoking all former wills by me at any time heretofore made.

Item First. Immediately after my death and decent Christian burial, I desire that all my just debt be paid by my executor herein after named.

Item Second. After the payment of all my just debt, if any, by my executor as aforesaid, I give, devise and bequeath three shares of the stock of the Central Rail Road and Danville Company of Georgia, unto my son Silas Tulton, to him, his heirs, executors, administrators and assigns, forever.

Item Third. I give, devise and bequeath, after the payment of my debt as aforesaid, Two Hundred Dollars, unto the said Silas Tulton, his executors and administrators, in trust, for the sole and separate use, benefit and behoof of my daughter Martha C. Bourquin, widow, during her natural life, free from the control, contract and liabilities of any future husband; and, after her decease, then to the child or children of the said Martha C. Bourquin alive at the time of her death - the representation or representations of a child of said Martha C. Bourquin, that is, of a child dying in her lifetime, to represent and take the share which it, said child would have taken if alive at the time of the death of said Martha C. Bourquin.

Item Fourth. After the payment of all my just debt, if any, by my executor as aforesaid, I give, devise and bequeath unto Ernest C. Tulton and David Tulton, my sons, and Mary C. Wards, my daughter residing in the State of Alabama, Five Dollars each, to them for their own use, forever.

Item Fifth. After the payment of my just debt, as aforesaid, if any, by my executor I give, devise and bequeath all the rest and residue of all my estate and property of every kind and of whatsoever nature, remaining after the payment of the aforesaid legacies, unto Ernest C. Tulton and William C. Tulton, my sons, and the children of